

SHARK ANATOMY

Examine the 14 species of sharks in the Aquarium and match their body parts to their functions.

1. This body part allows sharks to detect electricity in the water. _____
2. Water passes over this body part so the shark can breathe. _____
3. Sharks use these to help steer through the water. _____
4. Sharks have several thousand of these in a life time. _____
5. This body part helps propel the shark through the water. _____

SHARK BEHAVIOUR

Choose your favourite shark in the Aquarium and answer the following questions.

1. What type of shark is it? _____
2. What habitat does this animal live in? _____
3. Where can it be found within its habitat? _____
4. How does this animal protect itself? _____
5. Observe the animal for one minute.
 - A) How does the animal move? _____
 - B) What did it do that surprised you? _____

Find us on social media! @RipleysAquaCA #SharkSelfie

